Charles Perkins Centre Len Storlien Award
Terms and Conditions

1. Background

a. This prize has been established to support Charles Perkins Centre (CPC) PhD candidates who have presented at the CPC Biology Domain or Boden Initiative Seminar Series to attend an international conference.

b. This prize has been established in honour of Dr Len Storlien, an outstanding researcher, collaborator and mentor in nutrition and metabolic function.

2. Eligibility Criteria

a. At the time of application, applicants must be either:

    I.   currently enrolled in a Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Sydney, or
    II.   have completed a Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Sydney in the previous calendar year.

b. Applicants must be supervised by a Charles Perkins Centre member.

c. Applicants must have presented at a Charles Perkins Centre Biology Domain or Boden Initiative seminar.

d. Applicants must present at a Charles Perkins Centre symposium if shortlisted.

3. Selection Criteria

a. Applicants will be shortlisted based on a one-page abstract of their research which consists of:

    I.   an introduction,
    II.   methods,
    III.   conclusions, and
    IV.   significance of findings.

b. A panel will select the four top applications and these individuals will present at a Charles Perkins Centre symposium.

c. The Prize will be awarded to the best speaker at the Charles Perkins Centre symposium.

4. Value

a. This Prize has a value of $1,500 and will be paid as a one-off payment.

b. No other amount is payable.

Charles Perkins Centre Len Storlien Award

c. The Prize will be awarded subject to the availability of funds.

5. Termination

a. The University reserves the right to withdraw the Prize, if the University determines that the student is guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information that has a relationship to the awarding of this Prize.

b. Once withdrawn the Prize will not be reinstated unless due to University error.